The Lord Bond Robbery. [From the New York Post.]

The great Lord bond robbery, which occurred in this city over fifteen months ago, has again been brought to public notice by the recovery of nearly all of the stolen bonds. -This robbery is probably the most remarkable on record.

a very old man, was sitting in his office, in She will send, when desired, a certified certifi-In March, 1866, Mr. Rufus L. Lord, who is Exchange Place, when a stranger entered and cate, or written guarantee, that the picture is engaged him in conversation. While talking what it purports to be. By enclosing a small to this man an accomplice entered and stole lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, from an open safe bonds amounting in the disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty aggregate to one million seven hundred thousand dollars. As soon as discovered, the robbery was made known to the police, but there was no evidence by which the thieves could be traced. At first it was difficult to tell the exact amount stolen or the number of the bonds. Mr. Lord had seen no one go to the safe, and could not positively identify the man who engaged him in conversation. In fact Mr. Lord would not believe the bonds were stolen in this manner until after the arrest of some of the men connected with the robbery.

The police immediately began to search for the thieves, and in the latter part of April or first of May they succeeded in taking one of the criminals. But when arrested none of the bonds were found in his possession, and Mr. Lord could not recognize him. After he had teen in confinement a short time this man said he could recover Mr. Lord's bonds under certain conditions. That gentleman was very anxious to get them back, and the consent of the District Attorney was obtained to use the well as Peruvian, and it costs but two thirds prisoner as a medium for recovering the stolen | the price of that article. property. Accompanied by detectives he went to Massachusetts, and had secured some of the bonds, when further proceedings were stopped by his arrest by the United States Marshal .-The men who held the stolen property then became frightened and placed the bonds in the hands of the ringleader, who took some of them to Europe for negotiation. A few were secured by Mr. Lord from time to time, he and Ground Bones. paying percentage for their recovery.

The man who went to Europe was formerly a broker in this city. While there he sold but a small amount of the bonds, but for these he failed to divide with two of the men who had placed their share of the property in his keeping. Both of these men were subsequently arrested, and, smarting under the trickery of their confederate, his guilt and movements became known to the authorities. Having recently returned to this country, his whereabouts were ascertained. An indictment was then obtained against him, and officers were expenses are lessened, we are enabled to sell it about applying for a requisition to secure this very low, with a liberal discount to dealers. arrest, when nearly twelve hundred thousand dollars worth of bonds were returned to Mr. Lord through a broker, the latter receiving a reward for their delivery.

There are now about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars of the stolen bonds out. It has been learned that there were six men engaged in the robbery, three of whom have been indicted.

RENTS IN NEW YORK .- There is no better proof the business done in New York than the enormous prices paid for stores and offices .-Leading lawyers are glad to get double rooms on the third floor at $2,000 a year. Others whose business is less prosperous go one or two storeys higher and pay $350 to $500 a room. Some of the buildings recently erected are palaces in their way. Nothing but the conviction that these rents were to last could induce such an outlay. In several of them the steps are of marble, the washboards are of marble, the door jambs are of iron painted to is cal'ed to the stock of E. S. FLEMING. imitate wood, the floors are of marquetrie, the ceilings are fire-proof, the outer walls of stone and the inner of brick. In fact the buildings are fire-proof. The only wood is the frame work of the doors, which are one-half plate glass, that of the windows and the floors .-Everything is on a magnificent scale. The Northern markets. halls are well lighted, and the side streets, which are so narrow as to produce excessive reverberation, are paved in wood. The Brown Building in Wall street especially, is fit for a palatial residence. The basement of these houses is generally used as a banking house.-The foreign nomenclature for storeys is being adopted. The second floor is called the first storey. The third floor is the second and soon. It is a gentle deceit the public is willing to practice upon itself to lighten the ascent. -The rents of the offices in these buildings are as high as ever, and there is no such reduction in dwellings and warehouses as is reported out of New York. For the moment, the demand is not so great as it was, but occupants have not been able to have their rents reduced .-

FERTILIZERS, &c.

GUANO AND FERTILIZERS.

The subscriber has on hand a full assortment of the most approved MANURES, which he is prepared to sell in any quantity desired, at the LOWEST MARKET RATES.

As the prices are uniform the farmer can obtain his supplies as well by correspondence as though he were to purchase in person. I OFFER:

Peruvian Guano, of the best quality. Bolivian Guano. This article comes from the same section as Peruvian, which it closely resembles in texture and appearance. It is much richer in Phosphate, but has less Amonia. For stiff soils or stiff sub-soils it will answer quite as Mexican Guano, of four grades.

Ground Bones. Whitelock's Cerealizer. The high reputation borne by this article as the most effective and reliable crop producer made in the United States, induces me to ask the farmer to test it alongside of any manure he may apply.

Woolston's Amoniated Bone Phosphate. This article is manufactured by the same house, and contains all the best qualities of Peruvian Guano and Ground Bones. WM. H. IR WIN, mh 28-tf No. 5, south Union street.

QUANO.—REED'S AMMONIATED SU-superphosphate yet offered to the farmer, pos-sessing all the activity of Peruvian Guano, but being far more durable in its effects.

It contains a large amount of animal matter in a highly concentrated form, which, combined with its soluble bone phosphate of lime, cannot fail to render it very valuable as a fertilizer .-Notwithstanding we believe it to be the best super-phosphate in the market, yet, by a pro-cess peculiar in its manufacture, whereby the M. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it fully comes up to our representations.
